

OLSS Grade 8 Students' Road to High School

Recently, some of our eighth grade students spoke at a Saturday or Sunday Mass. They were just a small glimpse of our amazing Class of 2011. Most of them have been with us since Pre K 3 and some have joined our family along the way. Each child is very special to us and contributes greatly to the success of our school. The Catholic High Schools' results are in. Again, our students have excelled. We would like to share the good news with you.
